AMUSEMENTS TO-NIGHT

FORD'S THEATER .- This afternoon, at three o'clock, a performance will be given at Ford's for the benefit of the drafted men of the Third Ward. Maggie Mitchell and all of the company will appear In the evening Maggie will give her last performance of "Fanchon" Her friends, no doubt, hope she will reconsider this determination, as Fanchon is the best of her characters. RIVERS AND DERIOES' CIRCUS TENT at the corner of New York avenue and 6th street, was filled to overflowing again last night. Among the performers are the Bedouin Arabs, the Delevante Brothers, Master Eddie Rivers, &c., &c., while Rivers and Derious themselves contribute much to the general enjoyment. Two performances are given daily, afternoon and evening.

CANTERBURY .- Millie and Clara Fowler close their successful engagement here tonight. They are two of the most graceful dansenses that have appeared here in a long while. The bill for to-night is as usual, a good one, and ail the members of the company will take part in it.

VARIETIES .- Mr. Fitz Simmons is to receive a benefit to-night. His new drama, "The Convict's Skull, or Romar the Vagrant," will be again performed. All of the company will lend their aid to make the entertainment an acceptable and attractive one.

GROVER'S THEATER .- "Willie Reilly, or a Tale of Munster," a two-act drama written expressly for Mr Barney Williams, and performed originally by him, will be performed to-night. It will be followed by the Protean comedietta, "In and Out of Place," and the Irish farce, "The Happy Man." Keppitz fine orchestra will perform many new and beautiful selections.

DRAFT MEETING IN THE SEVENTH WARD .-Last evening the citizens of the Seventh ward held another meeting at the Island Hall in reference to the draft-Mr. C. S. Noves in the chair and Mr. W. J. Murtagh secretary.

Mr. Semmes, the treasurer, reported the entire credits to the quota of the ward 26. The amount received, $9.616 02; expended, $6,669 75; on hand, $2,946 27. There had been nothing done since the previous morning in recruiting They had negociated for one substitute but the Third ward out-bid them. The question was what is to be done with the funds? His opinion was that the best plan would be to divide it among the drafted men who are not members of the club, each man receiving about $33, but should some of the drafted men be members of the Bacon Club, the amount to each man would be from $10 to $50 perhaps. Mr. W. H. Thompson asked what amount had been contributed by the white men and what by colored men? The disposition of the latter was to go in the service and he thought the amount contributed by them should be re-The Chair suggested that the colored people had shared with the whites by the reduction of the quota of the ward, through the recruits put in by the money of the association, and that it would be proper to return their contribution with a proportionate reduction. Mr. Semmes stated that the amount could be readily determined, for the quota had been reduced 26 men, which was about 20 per cent. Mr. Murtagh referred to the bill passed by the councils appropriating $50,000 to relieve those drafted, and stated that the Mayor had realized the money from the Bank of Wash. ington and Jay Cooke & Co., each of which had advanced $25,000. The money was to be paid to those drafted who are not members of any club, and who are not able to procure substitutes. Some action should be taken in order that the ward's proportion of the money should be judiciously expended. Mr. W. H. McGinnis said the bill did not state that the benefits should not apply to members of clubs

Mr. Murtagh replied that the construction put on the bill by the Mayor and others was that it should not apply to members of the clubs, and it was not thought that any man belonging to a club and thereby exempted would claim the benefit of the act. Some gentleman remarked that some of those drafted who are members of the club wanted money enough to get a substitute and also a share of the balance, and no doubt they would also claim benefits under the bill. The Chair stated that several members of the Councils had met at the Mayor's office that day and it had been determined that some amendatorp measure should be brought up at the next meeting of the Councils by which those who have arrived at military age since the 31st of December, 1863, shall not be debarred from benefit by the appropriation as they are by the bill as passed. It was also proper that such citizens as have been dropped from the poll-list accidentally by the assessor and are qualified to vote on certificate should Mr. Murtagh offered the following resolu tions: which were unanimously adopted: Resolved, That a committee of seven members of the association, together with the treas. urer, be appointed from various sections of the ward, to act in conjunction with the Mayor in procuring substitutes, to be paid for out of the ward's proportion of the bounty fund, for the citizens of the ward, in accordance with the provisions of the bill. Resblved, That said committee shall determine from the character of the testimony who shall be entitled to the benefit of the fund. Resolved. That in order to facilitate the business of the committee, they shall have power to employ a clerk at a reasonable compen-

Resolved, That the fund of the association shall be divided equally between the drafted men held to service who are not members of any exemption club, and who have contributed to said fund. The following committee were appointed:

J. H Semmes, W. J. Murtagh, Geo. White, B.

F. Clark, Dr. R. Croggon, Thos. E. Lloyd, W. H. McGinnis, F. A. Boswell; to which the Chair was added, on motion. Mr. W. H. Thompson offered a resolution authorizing the treasurer to pay over to the colored people the amount contributed by them, less a proportion of the amount already expended in filling up the quota. Mr. Murtagh said that a representative of the colored people, J. N. F. Wilkinson, was present, and suggested that he be consulted. Mr. Wilkinson said there was a feeling amongst the colored people that they were not to be fairly dealt by in the matter. Some of those drafted had come to him to ascertain if any of the money collected would be available for them. It seemed to be that the way the thing was working was every man for himself and God for us all. [Laughter.] One of his friends went to the Provost Marshal's to see if he was drafted, was chacked right in, and not given time even to return and see his wife. [Laughter.] He asked if this was according to law. He understood that a man should have ten days after being drafted before being held to service. The colored people only wanted their rights, and if the ship could not sail along smoothly, he thought it best to part company and get their share of the money Mr Semmes said the colored men drafted would receive the same as the white men drafted, about $33 each, and he suggested that the resolutions of Mr. Murtagh covered the whole

The Chair said that the colored people would do better by sharing equally with the white drafted, than they would by having their money returned to them. Mr. Thompson then withdrew his resolu-

Mr. Semmes suggested that a ball be given for the benefit of the drafted men of the ward. Other wards had benefits given by the theaters and other places of amusement located in their wards, and something of the kind would materially add to the funds of the ward.

The suggestion was adopted by acclamation, and Mr. Murtagh moved the appointment of a committee to make the necessary arrangements.

The following were appointed on the com-tee: J. H. Semmes, W. J. Foster, Jackson Yates, William T. Hall, W. T. Ford, W. H. Thompson, W. H. McGinnis, F. A. Boswell, W. J. Muriagh, E. H. Gregory, Levi Jones, William Thomas Stone, John G. Dadley, C. O. Hamilton, George White, John Goodrick, John F Havenner, James La Fontame, R. F. Bartle, Thomas E. Lloyd, H. K. Gray, C. S. The meeting adjourned, subject to the call of the President.

THIRD WARD MEETING .- Another meeting of the citizens of the Third Ward was held last night at Temperance Hall, Mr. N. D. Larner presiding.

The meeting was a very large one, and al-though the call was extended to all whether drafted or not, not more than seven of those who had been drafted made their appearance. Committees appointed to make collections, reportee that they had collected $439, in addition to the amounts heretofore reported. The names of those drafted were read off, and as each name was called the question was asked whether they had become members of the association by contributing to it. It was found that only ten members of the association, viz: H. M. Smeltzer, John Shedd, Thos. A. Mitchell, A. E. H. Johnson, David T. Cissel, L. G. Wilson, W. H. Wood, Jno. Sargeant, W. Starr, Richard Poole, had been drafted. C. W. Dean and H. G. Ayer were reported as already in the service. Thomas J. Galt, it was announced, had furnished a substitute.

When the name of one of the drafted men was called, the collector of his District remarked that he had visited the man's residence and saw his wife. She refused peremptorily to give a cent, remarking that "she did not care whether her husband was drafted or not.' Laughter.

Mr. Sharretts made a motion that the committee be authorized to collect $200 from each of the men drafted who had not contributed to the fund. By this means, Mr. S. argued, they could get enough money to put in recruits for each man. The club had on hand $2,875. The entertainment at Ford's Theater was expected to give them an additional $2,000. They could probably find twenty men who would contribute $200 each. This added to the amount on hand would give them $8,000, and for this amount Mr. Sharretts believed they could obtain a sufficient number of recruits. They could be obtained for $200 each in addition to the Government bounty. Substitutes, however, could not get that bounty, and it would cost at least $600 for each substitute.

Other gentlemen in the hall spoke against Mr Sharretts' proposition. They argued that it was the duty of the club to attend first to those who had contributed. Let the outsiders who refused to contribute take care of themselves. Mr. Bartlett and others favored Mr. Sharretts resolution. They thought it would be easier to clear the ward of any subsequent draft by putting in recruits for all drafted.

The motion of Mr. Sharretts failed, and Mr. Wright moved that the club protect those drafted men who had contributed, first. The whole question was laid over until this evening, and in the meantime an effort is to be made to have every drafted man present.

THE JEWISH NEW YEAR .- The Jews throughout the world commenced last evening at sundown the celebration of "Rosh Hashana," or the incoming of the 5,625th year of their era, dating from the creation of the world. festival is the second in importance among the Hebrews-the Day of Atonement being the first, and which is celebrated the second day after the commencement of the "Rosh Hashana." The ceremonies of this festival are of the most impressive character, as, independent of the religious services, it is an occasion when congratulations are exchanged among friends, differences adjusted between enemies, and general good will prevails. The festival closes with a season of penitence and prayer. During the festival business is generally suspended among the Hebrews, and their stores are closed. It appears to be well observed in Washington judging from the number of stores

BRADY'S WASHINGTON GYMNASIUM .- The public will be glad to see by the announcement elsewhere that Brady, of New York, who has acquired such celebrity as the head of the leading gymnasium of the country, is about to open a first-class establishment on Louisiana avenue, between 9th and 10th streets. It will be conducted on the same admirable plan as the celebrated "Brady's Seventh Regiment Gymnasium" of New York.

CORPORATION OF GEORGETOWN. - The Boards of Aldermen and Common Council were to have met last night, pursuant to adjournment. At the hour for business, the only person connected with the Aldermen present was the Clerk of the Corporation. A few members, with the Secretary, of the Council, were present, but no quorum for business. After waiting a reasonable time for the arrival of others, the Boards, of necessity, adjourned sine die.
